"BUFFALO BILL" DIES AT THE HOME OF SISTER IN DENVER

mon consent is this: There was a een called by his friends 'Buffalo Bill' ecause he was such a successful buffalo hunter. When he heard that Cody was being called 'Buffalo Bill' too, he disputed his right to that title. Cody heard of it, and told some of the officers of the army post that if there was any dispute, he for one was willing o settle it by an actual contest in buffalo killing. Comstock was as game as Cody, and accepted the challenge. And so the plainsmen arranged the contest. They settled upon a huge tract of prairie near Sheridan, Kan., and when he appointed day arrived everybody who could reach the spot came to witless the contest. Officers, soldiers, railroad men, scouts, ploneers, and all the inhabitants of that country gathered in a large crowd. Judges were appointed and the two claimants to the title were on hand. It was an easy matter in those days and in that place to find a herd of buffaloes, so that within an hour after the start they had sighted a herd and started for the hunt.

Cody Kills Most Buffaloes. As soon as the herd was sighted the two men separated each working on his own account and getting all the buffaloes he could. Cody killed 38, to 23 for Comstock, and the sight of 61 bufaloes lying dead upon the plain must have been a wonderful one.

They had a gala lunch and in the aft-ernoon started again. And then the final crowning feat was apparent. In the second contest, Cody, in order to leave no doubt of the matter, road his horse without either saddle or bridle, and even then killed 18 to the other's 14. From that time on to this day no ne has questioned his right to the title of "Buffalo Bill."

Those who have witnessed "Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show" have a vivid collection of his famous battle with Chief Yellow Hand, as there portrayed. As a climax to the performance Buffalo Bill and Yellow Hand fought a uel to the death with knives. The verion of this fight given in Cody's autobiography is somewhat different. He escribes it thus:

"We were about half a mile from Gen. Merritt, for whom I was scouting, and the Indians suddenly turned upon us. One of the Indians who was handsomedecorated with all the ornaments usually worn by a warrior when engaged in a fight, sang out to me in his own tongue, 'I know you, Pa-he-haska: you want to fight come ahead and fight me.'

"The chief was riding his horse back and forth in front of his men as if to banter me and I concluded to accept the challenge. I galloped toward him for 50 yards and he advanced toward me about the same distance, both of us riding at full speed and then, when we were only about 30 yards apart I raised my rifle and fired. His horse fell to the ground, having been killed by a bullet.

"Almost at the same moment my burn horse went down, he having stepped in a gopher hole. The fall stepped in a gopner hole. The fall did not hurt me much and I instantly sprang to my feet. The Indian had also recovered himself, and we were now both on foot and not more than 20 paces apart. We fired at each per simultaneously. My usual luck lid not desert me on this ocasion, for is bullet missed me, while mine struck him in the breast. He reeled struck him in the breast. He reeled and fell, but before he had fairly touched the ground I was upon him, knife in hand, and had driven the keen-edged weapon to its hilt in his heart. Jerking his war bonnet off, I scientifically scalped him in about live seconds.

Organized Wild West Show. With the advance of civilization, findg his occupation on the West plains gone, Cody went on the stage, plains gone, Cody went on the stage, where he remained several years, playing leading parts in dramas depicting life on the frontier. Later, in association with Nate Salsbury, he organized his Wild West show, with which he toured this country for many years, toured this country for many years, and on one occasion visited the princiand on one occasion visited the princi-pal cities of Europe, where he was warmly received and entertained by royalty. He was elected to the Nebraska Legislature in 1872. Col. Cody, in 1866, was married to Miss Louisa Frederici in St. Louis.

Col. Cody has been continuously in the public mind through his entertainment ventures, his selection as guide to royalty and the adversity which overtook him his declining years. Women have played no small part in the publicity which he has obtained. A fight he had with Fred May in Washington was said to have been about Katherine Clemons, an actress, who later became the wife of Howard Gould. Cody regarded her as his ward, and it is said that he nce saved her from the Indians. In a divorce suit which was brought against him, the charge was made that he was unduly friendly with his press agent, a woman 18 years old. The Grand Duke Alexis of Russia and the Prince of Monaco, the owner of the Monte Carlo gambling palace, were among those for whom he acted as guide. It is said that in order to make certain that the Prince would find ear to shoot, a tame one was lef along a trail where he would be sure to Much publicity was given to the fact that a horse which the Colonel had ridden for 25 years on his scouting expeditions and elsewhere, was about to be sold. His friends engaged in a spirited bidding contest, vieing with each other for the privilege of buying it and presenting it to him. The white horse "Isham" which he rode when he ap-peared with his Wild West show was known internationally.

"Buffalo Bill's" entrances into the arena at the performances where he appeared were elaborately staged. He rode about the ring and afterward gave an exhibition of pistol shooting at tar-gets thrown into the air.

Pocket-Billiard Champion Favored to Retain Honors Against Kansas Cityan.

Frank Taberski of Schenectady, N. Y. nds Declines Oct. 27 Date, world's pocket billiard champion, and James Maturo of Kansas City, the challenger, will start their 450-point match for the title in Pittsburg tonight. The second and third blocks, all of 150 points, will be staged tomorrow and Friday nights.

Taberski, who, since winning the crown from Johnny Layton, the former St. Louisan, but now of Sedalia. Mo., has defended his honors twice. He defeated, Ralph Greenleaf and Edward Ralph, both by large totals.

This will not be Maturo's first chance at the title, as several seasons ago he was beaten by Benny Allen, then champion, by 13 points. Maturo recently defeated Johnny Layton in a 1000-point match. Several other cuefsts, among them Benny Allen, have their challenges in for a crack at the winner of the Taber-ski-Maturo clash.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 10 .- Pete (Kid) Herman of this city is claiming the ban-tamweight championship title today, as a result of his defeat on points of Kid makes Baltimore his home.

makes Baltimore his home.

If the mere question of beating Kid Williams were alone involved, Herman's claim would be undisputed. For, last night, after twice flooring Williams, he was given the decision on points by William Rocap, an Eastern referee.

Unofficially many of the crowd expressed the opinion that Williams' steady aggressiveness throughout the fight and his splendid condition at the finish showed he was the better man, despite the fact that he hit the canvas twice as a result of Herman's accurate and hard punches.

Herman seemed to have little trouble in scoring on Williams and floored his opponent in the fifth and twelfth rounds.

A challenge to the winner from Frankle Burns of Jersey City was read from the ring. He may be given a match with Herman's champlonship claims will be disputed on two counts. One is that, since the match was at 118 pounds, it cannot be considered a bantan champlousilp at all, the accepted mand has been accepted as the champlon in many quarters, because of the fight in which Williams lost on a foul.

Helenkamp, 581, and Parthy, 578, were the stars for the winners. Jarrett, with 583, was the only local pin toppier to show his true form. A return match will be rolled on the Palace alleys on Saturday night.

Frank Chance Signs Vaughn, Former St. Louis Fed, to Play for Angels

Bobby Vaughn, who was a member of the St. Louis Federals, two ber of the St. Louis Federals, two ber ago and was last season with Portland in the Pacific Coast League, has been purchased by the Los Andrews and the Cube of the Cube, has coached manager of the Cube, has coached the Crimson for the past few years.

geles outfit. Vaughn must have come down off his "high horse" or it is probably Frank Chance would not have swung the deal.

Last summer he had a trade all framed up with the McCredles for Vaughn, but at the last minute decided to ask the player what he considered his services worth for 1917.

"Twenty-four hundred dollars or I will quit the game." was the announcement from Vaughn.

This ended all negotiations, as Chance did not figure Vaughn a tosser worth $345 a month to his club.

"If you don't think that George Stall-ings 'plays the percentage' you're fool-ish." said Ed Koney vesterday. "I have seen him switch pitchers so as to get a right-handed hitting hurler against a left-handed pitcher. He argues that in a stretch of 164 games the team that player the small percentage will win many a close game."

Vic Saier's Eyes O K. Vic Saier's Eyes O K.

One heavy load has been taken off the shoulders of Fred Mitchell, the new manager of the Cubs. Shortly after Mitchell took office, he was notified that Vic Saier, the Bruins' star first sacker, had written that he would be in shape and that his eyes, which bothered him a lot last season, were as good as ever following a long rest. This assures Mitchell of at least one regular, who is a real star, in his infield.

Charley Dooin, who several years ago managed the Phillies and was last season a member of the Giants

Jimmy Smith, the youngster, who was tried out at short by the Pirates last season, has received an offer from Mike Donlin to go to Cuba with an outfit that the former Giant outfielder intends to take to the Island. Donlin was recently named manage of the Memphis club of the Southern League.

PETER HERMAN has added his little quip to the season's pugilistic merriment by claiming the bantamweight championship, following his victory last night over John Gutenko (Kid Williams), the Danish boxer. Pete's claim is about as good as the past two years—and make a last try for permanent possession of the national cup, on which he holds two legs.

And the "Comet" right and the "Comet" wrong are two very different factors. any other man's-in fact, it may give him a shade over his rivals; but the whole championship muddle is just as clear as the European peace situation or a New Year celebrator's head, the morning after. Here are the facts:

Pete Herman can't legally at 118 pounds, exceeding the ban-

Kid Williams is no longer the champion because (1) he cannot reduce to the correct weight and (2) because experts say he lost the crown on a foul to Johnny

You can take your pick as to the most deserving wight. If Pete can really make 116 pounds ringside and fight, he should be given credit in preference to Ertle, who has yet to prove, to everyone's satisfaction, that he is premier in his division.

Look for a New Net Champion. GEORGE MYERS CHURCH, the most improved tennis player among the upper ten of the United States, last the upper ten of the United States, last season, added a title to his collection at Manila, last week, when he defeated Throckmorton for the championship of the Orient.

Dispatches did not state whether Ichiya Kumagae and Hachishiro Mikami, the Japanese players, were entries. They competed last year. However, Kumagae, Church and Throckmorton are certain to be opponents during the stay of the Americans in the Far East.

Irrespective of results of any matches played there, the trip may have an important bearing on the United States tennis championship next year. Church will have passed a winter of practice, under outdoor conditions, with some stiff competition thrown in to gear him up. Church was a star last season. But for a wrenched ankle in one of his important matches, he might have deserved equal ranking with Williams.

Next season, physical accidents not counted, he will be the boy they will all have to defeat for the title. . . .

Denver Man's Rough Tactics Cause Police to Enter Ring in Twelfth Round.

JACK MORAN of St. Louis, Mo., vs. Jack Geyer of Colum-bus, O., 12 rounds (Moran about 175 pounds, Geyer about 200) —Moran the winner on points. ARB JOLLY vs. Louis Leo-nard, 8 rounds at 133 pounds eferee of Last Night's Future City Contests, In a wild finish of a rough bout. Jack Moran, who is now claiming St Louis as his home, battled his way to victory over "Denver" Jack Geyer of Columbus, O., at the Future

City Athletic Club last night. In the twelfth and last round, the west side of the ring, Geyer caught Moran around the neck with his left arm and pulled him to the floor. Then, helping Moran to a half-erect position. Geyer suddenly let go and began singging Moran before the latter had a chance to acquire his balance.

I rushed between the men and tried to push Geyer back, at the same time trying to make him understand that he should have stepped back from Moran, as from a clinch, and should not have struck him before breaking cleanly away. I warned him not to attempt such tactics again or he would be disqualified for fouling.

Geyer failed to understand my meaning and seemed to think I had disqualified him. He refused to listen, brushed me aside and began an assault upon Moran.

Police Curb Jack Geyer.

Geyer was frantic and could not be argued with. It probably appeared to the spectators that he was about to strike me. At any rate, intense excitement prevailed. The spectators were standing up and yelling, while a Sergeant and several of his squad climbed to the platform of the ring. The uniformed men climbing into the ring had its effect, and Geyer stepped back, while Moran said he was willing to continue the round. I motioned for them to proceed, and the police officers stepped outside the ropes.

As it turned out, I don't think the police were needed, as I doubt if Geyer meant to strike me or meant to stage a rough-and-tumble fight; but their presence was very timely. Geyer told both Moran and myself that he was sorry for what he had done, and then they inished the round in hurricane style, with Moran having the better of it. Geyer, weighing about 200 pounds, looked clumsy and out of condition when the bout started, but went through the 12 rounds about as easily as did Moran, who looked to be in good condition at a pour 127

In the last 10 years Mrs. Beeken had donated $45,000 to the Evangelical cal Church and its connecting institutions. Recently she announced a donation of $30,000 for the erection of a home in East St. Louis for deaconess nurses. Two years ago her gift of $10,000 saved Henrietta Hospital's debts, and put it in such a condition that the Deaconess Association could take charge of it. Later she gave the hospital an X-ray machine costing $3000.
Mrs. Beeken always was greatly put out when her benefactions became publicly known, and it was said that she feared to make donations to institutions because she disliked to read newspaper accounts of them.
The value of her estate is estimated at from $50,000 to $100,000.
She is survived by a nephew. Carl A. de Crousser, an insurance man, living at 2719 South Compton avenue, St. Louis.

To End Coughs

The following formula, easily mixed at home, makes one of the quickest cough remedies obtainable, often curing the worst cough in a day. Take a teaspoon-ful as often as necessary: congestion.

Sugar Syrup ... 1/2 pint Globe Pine Comp'd Aromatic ... 1/2 ounce ("Concentrated Pine")

The sugar syrup is made by dissolving six heaping tablespoonfuls of granulated sugar in 1/2 cup of water. Be sure to use Globe Pine Compound, which is sold only in 1/4 os. screw-top cases with Aromatic printed in red on outside.

Frost-Bites, Corns, Sore Feet

Bathe the feet in warm water, to which has been added two tablespoonfuls of Calcoide compound. This gives instant relief for aching, burning or perspiring feet; corns, callouses, sore bunions; also for frost-bites or chilblains. The Calcoide acts through the pores, removing the cause of the trouble. Its use also keeps the feet in a firm, healthy condition, free from swelling and puffing.
